Fr JACK

Again Jesus is on one of his favourite themes:
SERVICE.

He came into the world as a suffering servant who does not want anyone to be lost.

There are many people in this parish who have put themselves at the service of others. They give of themselves tirelessly and unselfishly for the benefit of the parish and others.. They are the ones who make the parish what it is. Thank you very much.
I ask YOU, would you like to do something for the service of others?

If everyone does something, no matter how little,
for the benefit of the parish/others we really could become a model parish of the church in action.
Please consider, offer don't wait to be asked.

To betray you must first belong

BORROWED...

I like to think they were borrowed, but they are missing. A hall table, a keyboard, a microphone & a base guitar - Please return -
We will have a Mass next week for the borrower / thief for God's forgiveness.

Two Bikes (Giant) for sale. £300 ono.
Money to Fr Simon. Talk to Fr Jack.

AFRICAN MASS

Sunday 30th Sept at 12 noon.

Please all Africans get involved, not just the few usual people. Special African cuisine after Mass.

The whole parish is invited.

Thanks to the African community, other communities could follow their example.

PRAYERS OF THE FAITHFUL (Bidding prayers)

That's what they are, prayers of the people.
At the moment they are the prayers of Fr
Jack. Is anybody willing to write them, say once a month to begin???

RECENT SURVEY OF SCHOOLS

12 September 2018, new research from UCL
Institute of Education (IOE) shows: 'Religious background is more important than a faith school education for academic success. The academic advantages associated with a faith school education are short lived, and are mainly explained by home background'
Parents without your support, most is a waste of time.
