Fr Jack

If you love you will get hurt, probably killed. If you do not love you are probably dead already.

Christianity is the door to infinity and that was never more true than today, Sunday of the resurrection.

We are called out of the darkness of the tomb and to infinity. Jesus is preparing the future.

True courage is not being unafraid, it is not being prisoners of ones fear.

Peter and all the apostles denied and abandoned Jesus on Good Friday, but today they are transformed into men and women of courage and vision.

Mary Magdalene rushes back, with love to tell the good news.

They now are people of excitement, enthusiasm and energy.

They will go on to change the world.

And so today, can go on in the same way?

Thousands have given their time, energy and talents for others and in the process, many made the supreme sacrifice of dying. Those of us who are left will be forever grateful to them.

I see a divine spirit in people.

Jesus brought victory over all pain, suffering, sin and anything that causes us anguish or suffering. We have got to place ourselves in the palm of his hand.
And as He rose out of the tomb, totally different, we pray that we will rise out of this crisis totally different.

In God we trust, may He go with you.
