Dear Friends,
Still praying and hope that you are all keeping well under the protection of Our Lord Jesus Christ.
Though time demand tough solutions. Perhaps now more than ever we need to turn to Him and rattle the gates of heaven. He is listening and for one second don't say, "God is trying to teach us something."
He is our loving father who cares for all his children. Perhaps we can learn now that as a world we are one family.
Don't pray just to save our people, pray to save our planet, our common home.

ADORATION

There is Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament every day from 10 to 11 and evenings from 7 to 8.

And on Sunday from 10 to 12.

Maybe from next week we will be able to have mass with all the usual regulations being fulfilled.

There is not a Sunday obligation at the moment but a suggestion is that we could come to mass any day during the week. To spread out the crowd.

More details to follow.

Stay safe, love and prayers,
Miss you all, Fr Jack

Feast of St Peter & St. Paul

A feast of two great heroes of the Church. Following Christ to the death.

Peter, a fisherman and probably not to educated but with a heart as big as a house.

Paul, a tent maker and a prolific writer.

Like all of us they had their history/humility.

Peter who denied Jesus several times.

Paul who thought he was doing a great job for "god" by killing Christians.

But both fiercely remained close to Christ and died for love of him.

Our faith has to be a deep love rooted in Our Lord Jesus Christ. And never more so than now.

A few quotes from both of them.

"There is no longer Jew or Greek, there is no longer slave or free, there is no longer male or female; for all of you are one in Christ."

"For me to live is Christ and to die is gain."

"I live now, not I but Christ lives in me."

"You are the Christ Son of the living God."

Ordered to, "put out into the deep" by Jesus.

"Cloth yourselves, all of you with complete humility."

The third time he said to him, "Simon son of John, do you love me?" Peter was hurt because Jesus asked him the third time, "Do you love me?" He said, "Lord, you know all things; you know that I love you." Jesus said, "Feed my sheep.
