Fr Jack

For many people death and spooks have a fascination, but they would rather not think about their own death. We say there are four last things:-

death, judgement, heaven and hell.

The only certainty in life is death, so why not face up to it.

HEAVEN..... I believe in it

DEATH..... I believe in it.

JUDGEMENT..... I believe in it.

HELL..... I believe in it.

MERCY OF GOD..... I believe in it.

JUSTICE OF GOD..... I believe in it.

And funnily enough the bible talks about all of them, so I have it on good authority.

Don't mess with God or eternity. Check out your credit.

And don't forget St Francis' famous dictum, "The world is full of good people who do nothing."

With your parish pack this weekend you will find a Cafod brochure. In there, there are gifts ranging from £4 to £4,000. Something to suit everybody's pocket, even the poorest. Pick one to suit your pocket. Send it to Cafod. Or give it to me in an envelope, by next weekend if possible and then we will be on time to get a card back for our Christmas tree.

A TREE FULL OF 500 GIFTS FOR OTHER PEOPLE.

Don't forget to encourage the children to do their own gift from their pocket money.

An optimist is one who thinks that when his shoes wear out, he will be back on his feet again.

Christmas Party!

All our parishioners are invited to a Christmas party on 16th December from 1:00 to 4:00pm. There will be games, music, crafts and food. Buy your raffle tickets and win restaurant, activity and hamper vouchers! If you would like to help organise or contribute, please contact Marion or Milly after 10:00am mass. Please come to support your Parish and make this event a joyful celebration!

The date this year is Friday 30th November from 3-8 pm, at Oxford Circus tube station.

This is always huge fun and is their biggest single fundraising event of the year. Join in to sing, play an instrument, hold a collecting bucket or hand out flyers. Come at times to suit you: 3pm-4.30, 4.30-6pm, or 6-8pm. Please email Maggie Hindley: m@maggiehindley.org to let her know your preferred slot, or just to turn up anyway...
