Pope's Intention for March

A Christian Response to Bioethical Challenges

'We pray for Christians facing new bioethical challenges; may they continue to defend the dignity of all human life with prayer and action'.

Pecan

Pecan in Peckham is a local foodbank set up by the churches many years ago and is now much bigger than a food bank. It has a life of its own. I hope you are collecting for it, as our Lenten project.

Next Sunday Alex Porter will come to talk to us about their work at the 8.30 and 12noon mass. Hopefully we will be able to get a volunteer to represent us.

Ukraine

We continue to pray for Ukraine, but should we now consider taking in a family or individuals as a parish?

LIFE DOESN'T HAVE TO BE PERFECT TO BE WONDERFUL.

FR JACK

The transfiguration of Jesus Christ was a powerful demonstration of His divine nature and manifestation of His glory. The transfiguration of Jesus was quite a dramatic event.

We may not be capable of transfiguration but we can be transformed.

Again, let Paul be our guide.

In his letter to the Philippians, he says: - "Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus: even though he is God, did not count equality with God a thing to be grasped....." But made Himself of no reputation, and took upon Himself the form of a servant, and was made in the likeness of all men: And being found in human form, He humbled Himself, and became obedient unto death, even the death on the cross.

Or again: - "I live now not I, but Christ lives in me."

"Him in whom I live, move and have my being.

Yes, we are being continually called upon to be of the same mind as Christ. Through reading his word we form the mind of Christ in us, so the transformation at death will, I hope, be easier, but then again, "no eye has seen or ear heard what God has prepared for those who love him."

Sounds spectacular.

I pray and trust we have a wonderful future. Enjoy it in embryonic form here and now. Stay close to God.
