MEDJUGORJE

Some people will know a group of people from the parish and Fr Jack are going to Medjugorje from the 20th to the 25th April. Unfortunately, five people had to cancel. And will now lose all the money.

The travel agent says the ticket can be changed for £100. All-inclusive is £535 sharing. Single £625 Insurance £47 if you want to pay it.

The family would be willing to sell to anybody making a reasonable offer.

Time is running out. Please get in touch ASAP.

PARISH CO-ORDINATING TEAM

Many people do great work in this parish, keep it on the move and keep the PP happy.

Thank You Very Much.

However, we need to co-ordinate things a little better. Would you be willing to help?

I would like to invite 12 people to join a zoom meeting, every two weeks, to share and discuss a way forward. Let me know your thoughts.

FR JACK

I love today's gospel: A very angry crowd. A very calm Jesus. That's how to do it. Jesus bends down, He doesn't want to look the woman straight in the eye and embarrass her. Such consideration. And then the finger of God writing on the dust just as it had written the 10 commandments on the tablets of stone earlier. He is the author of the law and as such he must respect it. The people thought they had him over a barrel. As ever Jesus is not out done and he puts the challenge back to the angry crowd. He challenges their own sincerity. It is easy for Christians to take a self-righteous attitude towards the world. It is much more difficult to take Jesus's attitude. "Neither do I condemn you. Go and sin no more." All of us have contributed to the darkness of the world, none of us can cast the first stone.

If I have mis-judged you,
please let me know.

Keep your face towards the sunshine/Jesus and the shadows will fall behind you.

ETHIOPIAN COFFEE MORNING

Abbeba and Albi from Pecan are having a coffee morning next Sunday after the 10am mass. Should be a very enjoyable affair and there will also be some discussion on mental health issues and the follow up to the pandemic. Please, please, your support is needed.

Many thanks to everybody who contributed to the Ukrainian collection last week –
We raised £1002!
