FR Jack

The incarnation, God becoming man is an amazing thought. Why would God want to join us here on earth? Are we so fantastic? Yes, we are. God wanted to bridge the gap between earth and heaven, He did not want to remain apart. The greatest thing we can learn from it is the importance of us becoming one as a people. Sharing our joys and sorrows, supporting each other, don't suffer alone. Talk to someone and feel connected and hopefully supported.

Look for what unites us, what we share in common. Don't look for the divisions, the differences. We are God's chosen people, he loves and we should love one another.

A sincere thanks to all the people who helped this parish through the last year. Much goes on behind the scenes by many faithful, dedicated workers. Feel appreciated, you certainly make my job less stressful. You make this parish go round and spread the love of God. Long may it live, make sure you are on board in the coming year.

Happy Christmas and a Holy New Year to one and all.
