THANK YOU from Gina Hazell

May I thank you all at St James the Great, Fr Jack, parishioners and friends, very much for your great support, loving messages and prayers on the death of John. And your presence at John's requiem mass on 30th March, which truly celebrated John's life. We will all miss him so much. He is truly in the Lord's loving embrace and close to us. Thank you very much indeed for your generous donations to Misso (Red Box) where John worked. The Parish collected £445. Wonderful!

Fr Jack

When Jesus rose from the dead, he met Mary Magdalene who clung to his feet. She is obviously delighted to see Jesus again and it seems a reasonable thing to do, however, Jesus seems very abrupt and tells her not to cling to him but to go back to Jerusalem and tell the brothers.

Here Jesus is being adamant that He has opened the gates of heaven and we should not cling to him but get on with preaching the Good News.

Same idea on the Mount of Transfiguration when Peter wants to build three tents and stay on the mountain.

Jesus is adamant that they must go down and preach the Good News.

Today we see Jesus breathing on the apostles and telling them to receive the Holy Spirit, your sins are forgiven, we are free so get on with telling others what Jesus has done for you. As you read this you can reflect on what Jesus has done/means for you? Is it worth telling others?

It is of little traits that the greatest human character is composed.
