Mission Unleashed: Embracing the Social Dimension of Evangelisation on 14 July 7:00-8:30pm

Cardinal Tagle will speak on the Church's mission and the fundamental links between evangelisation (sharing Christ and his Good News) and social action. Please click here for more information and to book your place for this webinar hosted by CAFOD. Please pass this invitation on to others who may be interested

Fr Jack

Paul in the second reading makes what I think is a massive assumption. "Our interests are only in spiritual things." May be true for some people but not all. If we were all interested in the spiritual things only we would be living in a different world. Yes I believe it is possible. "Jesus says his yoke is light." Yes, anything we grasp with both hands and put our heart into is light and easy and very possible.

But for many their faith is routine, tired and boring and I agree, because our heart is not in it.

We need to appreciate what God has done for us and is still doing. The times he has protected and brought us through. I remember several times when God positively intervened in my life. And yes I believe he has even greater things in store for me and all of us. Make sure you enjoy the journey by sorting out your priorities.

You may find the worst enemy or best friend in yourself.
