FR JACK

On Sunday morning there are two very important things to note. Fr Jack who has only one mouth and you who have two ears. He may preach a brilliant sermon, but like Jesus in today's gospel if falls on deaf ears. "Sure we know what he is going to say," because you only hear what you want to hear. They were astonished, with his wisdom, his miracles. But He/God was only the carpenter's son. He has nothing to tell us. By contrast look at the way Ezekiel hears the voice of God and stood up. "
The word of God is alive and active
Are you listening?

2nd Collection next week

Mass of the Sacrament of Matrimony at St George's Cathedral on Saturday July 13 at 3 pm

Each year couples celebrating special wedding anniversaries, whether 1, 10, 25, 50, 60 or more - are invited to apply for a written personal invitation to the Mass from Bishop Philip Moger. The invitation will also cover a small number of family guests. Contact your local MFL coordinators direct to register your interest on;

Tel: 07505 305297 or

Email: mflse@rcaos.org.uk

Make sure to include the name of your parish and your full name, home address and phone number.

Couples are also invited to sign up for an hour's taster session of 'Building A Better Marriage' immediately prior to the Mass (1.30 pm -2.30 pm). Pre-booking is essential and all are welcome.

EUCCHARISTIC MINISTERS

If anybody has a eucharistic pix which they are no longer using could they please give it to me for others.

Hospital

Full time Hospital Chaplains are getting very scarce. So if you should be admitted to hospital tell the nurse to let the chaplain know or tell your family to let your parish priest. We don't automatically know.

Spreading the Word

If you know anyone interested in becoming Catholic, talk to them, why not spread the word. We will be starting a course in September.
