Fr Jack

Jesus is very severe on people who lead others astray. "Better they were never born." or "they were drowned in the depths of the sea." I am sure most parents would never lead their children astray, but many children are lead astray because of no guidance and by not teaching them. Throughout the gospels Jesus had a great love for children and people who depended on others, the way we should all depend on God, admitting our need. If you have been blessed with children, because God trusts you, make sure you do not disappoint him. Pray and teach them from the day they are born.
Doctors tell us Children learn in the womb.

WEDNESDAY WORD

Dear parents,
Please check out the Wednesday Word with your children every week. It is available on the link below and is child friendly.
