Do Good Week

How about doing something special you have never done before this week?

Such as: Speaking to an elderly neighbour? Inviting them in for a cup of tea? Offering to get shopping? Listening more to others' difficulties or points of view? Smiling and giving change to someone who is homeless?

Assisting those who regularly work hard with parish chores? Return things you have borrowed? Do the things you say you'll do? Any other ideas?

Missio

Would all Red Box holders please collect their Spring magazine in brown envelope and also empty your box into the envelope and return it to church with your name and address.

Many thanks.

Fr Jack

Jesus is transformed in the mountain, giving the Apostles encouragement and inspiration.

We say Jesus is the Light of the World, and that is so, but really Jesus coming into the world was like a second Incarnation.

The Word was present with God at the beginning, in the creation of the universe when God said, - "Let there be light." So really I talk about the First Incarnation: Light coming into the world at the beginning of time.

Light is not so much something I see, but the light by which I see everything.

It is because of the light I see everything.

So God is present in everything and everyone since the beginning of time..

As there is light all around us, let us pray for eyes to truly see, since there is plenty of light.

A compromise is a deal in which two sides get what neither of them really wanted.
