Fr Jack

Jesus was taken to the temple to be presented back to God. It was a bit of a forerunner for Baptism which Jesus introduced 30 years later, You had two godparents Simion and Anna. You had the offering of the poor, two doves and you had the announcement of Simeon, "A sword will pierce your own heart." How many hearts have been broken by the children. Often at baptisms I wonder to myself, what will this child grow up to be. All of us as children have the ability to bring joy to our parents. But parents, be sure to plant that joy there as you rear your children. Plant love, acceptance, God, joy, help them to love themselves. That does not mean spoiling them and giving them everything they want. Help them to appreciate what they have. Then go home and continue to help your child to grow in wisdom and love before man and God.

Baptism of Babies

Please let me know if you have a baby for baptism.

Confirmation

Anybody from class nine or upwards please give me your name, address and phone number.

Where words fail, music speaks.

Think of this in church when you are singing. It builds your faith.

Assisted dying Legislation

A small group of local Christians are looking for input to support our local MP, Miatta Fahnbulleh, in understanding the risks of introducing physician-assisted dying ahead of the Bill's third reading. Do you have experience in the health and/or social care sectors, and would be willing to share your insights on assisted dying to inform our local MP? Or have first-hand experience of the issues it raises? Please contact Laura Bradley on 07913525809 or at laurabradleyresearch@gmail.com
