Friday 1st November is the Feast of All Saints
and is a Holiday of Obligation.
Masses are at 10am and 7pm.

Another Musical Evening

Here in our own hall, on Saturday the 2nd November, from 7 to 10pm.

More waltzing, jiving, country and western and less teaching, we pay the piper so we call the tune.

Bring your own nibbles and drinks for yourself, or even better to share.

You are welcome to bring friends.

Tickets are £5 at the door.

MISSIO

All Red Box holders; please pick up your brown collecting envelope and autumn magazine from the back of the Church. Empty your Red Box into the envelope, write your name and address on it and then return it to the Church.

Many thanks.

Fr Jack

We are very familiar with today's Gospel.

But pride comes in many shapes.

Not trusting in God. I want to do it my way.

The opposite is also a problem, presumption.

It does not make any difference what I do, it is all planned out anyway.

God is in charge. Fact.

But I plan my life and God has given me the freedom to do as I wish.

He has also given me a brain and the Gospels to show how to live.

Trust in Him, follow his advice and life will be yours.

It's never too late to give up our prejudices.

Archbishop Michael Bowen
