Fr Jack.

Today's gospel is pretty difficult. Suffice it to say the Pharisees believe all the old law, oral and written. The Sadducees on the other hand, believe only the written law. So from the beginning they are on different footing.

And by and large, Jesus, in being dragged into their argument ignores them and the question, and just goes on to say it is a futile argument because things will be so different: as it is written, "Eye has not seen, nor ear heard, neither have entered into the heart of man, the things which God has prepared for those who love him."

So live your life as someone who loves God and then your reward will be great.

Caribbean Mass.

Sincere thanks to the Caribbean community for joining us today for mass, it truly enriches our celebration.

Next Sunday

The Filipino community will be doing something similar at the 12 o'clock mass. Food will be available after mass, so please bring some of your own cuisine along to share.
